

Case Studies – Research & Consultancy

The Challenge

Local developer instructed CBRE to provide a report examining the Bratislava property market to establish the extent of the offices, retail, residential and hotel in a prime location.

The Solution

CBRE provided an extended market report examining current supply and demand and potential rental levels for this project.

We continue to provide ongoing consultancy on this project.